

BUCKLAND RETIREMENT VILLAGE

COMPLAINTS HANDLING POLICY

INTRODUCTION

The recent changes to the Retirement Villages Act 1999 required Buckland to review its complaints management procedures and a decision has been made in accord with the requirement of this legislation to now introduce this revised policy for the retirement village residents.

The Buckland residential aged care facility will continue to use the long standing and well liked simple 'Customer Liaison Service' to manage complaints, suggestions and praise/compliments.

The Retirement Village Amendment Act 2018 outlined (as part of several new reforms) a Code of Conduct to be implemented in retirement villages.

The objectives of these rules of conduct are as follows:

- a) To establish the standards of conduct and behaviour that are expected of operators and their staff in relation to the management and operation of a retirement village, including a knowledge of relevant laws,
- b) To encourage higher standards of customer service to ensure that residents and prospective residents are treated with respect, dignity and fairness, and improving awareness of elder abuse,
- c) to promote fair, honest, transparent and ethical practices for the marketing and promotion of residential premises in retirement villages,
- d) to establish minimum standards for operators in the handling of complaints and the resolution of disputes in a retirement villages,
- e) to establish minimum training and competency standards for operators and their staff and ensure the effective oversight and supervision of staff.

Buckland is committed to the upholding of the above objectives.

OVERVIEW

Buckland is required to ensure complaint and internal dispute resolution processes are prepared and maintained.

This policy and process is not an alternative to the Buckland forms currently used to lodge requests for maintenance, etc. But for complaints that are believed to require a formal process rather than the general day to day manner in which the current Village Administration Officer deals with matters as they arise.

The following outlines Buckland's Policy with respect to how it has developed and implement actions to address complaints and internal disputes.

Complaints can be made by residents or persons acting on their behalf.

BUCKLAND'S COMMITMENT

- Buckland will proactively, respectfully and cooperatively manage complaints made by prospective residents, current residents and former residents.
- Buckland will maintain a complaints management system that is resident-focused and provides for continual review and monitoring.
- Buckland will advise residents that they have a right to refer a complaint to other avenues such as a relevant state regulatory authority.
- As a part of the complaints management system, Buckland will maintain clear written policies and procedures for handling and resolving complaints and disputes, which will also clearly identify Buckland's role in addressing resident-to-resident disputes. We will make these procedures available to residents and will ensure this provides a clear framework for all parties to participate in a process that aims to resolve issues without the need for external referral wherever possible. The procedure will include our full contact details.
- Buckland's procedures will assure residents that we will acknowledge a formal complaint, treat it confidentially and provide an initial response in writing as soon as possible. Where residents making a complaint tell us they are not satisfied with our response, we will not require them to write again to pursue the complaint through any escalation procedure. Buckland will maintain a complaints register where we record:
 - the names of the resident making the complaint;
 - key dates when we received;
 - acknowledged and responded to the complaint;
 - the substance of the complaint; and,
 - the person responsible for managing the complaint.
- Buckland will ensure all residents that deal directly with residents understand our commitment to resolving complaints and that they have suitable processes and capabilities for resolving complaints.
- Where possible and reasonable, Buckland will endeavour to resolve complaints at the village level within 15 working days of receiving the complaint (and which has sufficient details so as to under the nature of the complaint). A resident may agree to a longer time frame to obtain information or undertake relevant investigation. If a later time is agreed upon, Buckland will keep the resident informed of progress on a regular basis.
- Buckland will follow a cascading complaints handling policy, which allows complaints to be escalated in a way that seeks to resolve them in a cost effective and efficient manner that is fair and reasonable to all parties. The escalation pathways will be detailed in writing in our policies, but this does not preclude the resident from pursuing their rights elsewhere. Also, this Code does not preclude Buckland from offering or maintaining additional complaints handling and dispute resolution processes. However, the escalation pathway would generally include the following:
 - The Village Administration Officer
 - A senior manager who has not been party to the initial complaint handling process
 - If deemed necessary, an external independent resolution service,
 - The relevant authority with legislative authority to consider the complaint.
- Buckland will co-operate with an independent mediator or any regulatory authority during any investigation and abide by any agreement we make.
- A resident may appoint a representative to act on their behalf. Buckland will respect and cooperate in the same way with an intermediary or representative acting on behalf of a resident as we would with the resident themselves.
